SEE YOUR PURPOSE IN RECOVERY

When you arrive at SEE Purpose, you'll be welcomed by a beautiful lake and fields for people to enjoy the scenery or even just to take a walk with their therapist practicing mindfulness or having a session as they work through challenging issues. Some may even see a duck or two enjoying the grounds as well.

THE SEE PURPOSE DIFFERENCE

We believe that if given the appropriate tools, along with the practical application of those tools, and some guidance, people can regain control of their lives and rediscover/discover their purpose.

WHO WE ARE

SEE Purpose is a luxury center for addiction treatment located in Indiana that offers detox and residential inpatient levels of care. We are the first center of its kind located on this side of the country.

THE SEE PURPOSE MISSION

Our mission is to SEE Purpose seeks to ease the suffering caused by a multitude of issues caused by substance use. This takes a village. The village includes but is not limited: The family/loved ones, the treatment culture and environment, the clinical team, and anyone that can provide collateral support for the needs of the person receiving treatment.
